GENERAL GRANT'S ADMINISTRATION.

If Gen. Grant were as wise as he is fortunate he could do much to tranquillize and reassure the country. But to accomplish this he would need to have a definite policy and support it with great steadiness and moderation. The silence under which he has thus far veiled his intentions is not a bad omen—but yet a very good one, unless there is something behind the veil worth concealing. If he has no higher aim than merely to fill the offices and let things drift, passively performing only ministerial duties, he will fail to appreciate opportunities such as have seldom fallen to the lot of a high officer. The sense in which his reticence is favorable, is the absence which it displays of boastfulness at his success. We when it might turn out that the freedom from foolish vanity is the consequence of a manly claim of the value of substantial power, when it can be exerted for the public advantage. We should be glad to believe that he wishes to make the Presidency remembered in some other light than as a reward for his military services. If he desires to make his mark on the civil history of the country, and signalize his administration as the dawn of a great era, he must set out with a policy and use the great authority of his office to insure its success.

There is, of course, a certain kind of fealty that General Grant owes to the party that elected him. We suppose he will regard himself as bound, in honorable fidelity, to stand by the reconstruction measures, since he knew perfectly well what they were when he accepted the nomination, and their stability was the fundamental issue on which he was elected. But beyond this, he ought not to feel that he is bound. If Congress attempts to proceed farther in the same direction and oppress the South by new exhibitions of rigor, the new President is perfectly free to dissent. And he may legitimately do all in his power to soften the harshness of "reconstruction" in its practical operation. He should avail himself of his fresh popularity, as yet unworn by any attrition with Congress, to sound such a key-note, at the beginning of his administration, as will put an end to the malignant hostility to the South which has thus far been the impelling spirit of the Republican party. While the great mass of offices are undistributed, his magnanimity will be more patiently borne than it would afterwards, as none of the countless host of aspirants, including all the most active men in the party, will be anxious to find grounds of censure while they are in expectation and suspense. We wish we could believe that he is with some such wise design that he is so carefully holding them all at a distance.

"But what," it may be asked, "can General Grant do, if he acknowledges himself bound by the reconstruction measures?"—Enough, if he rises to the full height of his opportunities, to turn back the tide of vengeful, domineering passions which has so long surged against the South. Enough to show that in his wish and determination at least, bygones are to be bygones; that the old quarrel is at last ended; that he means to make good the only memorable thing in his letter of acceptance, the exclamation, "Let us have peace." Mere professions amount to little, and we should be sorry to have him fill his inaugural with canting palaver. We want him to show his faith by his works, which he may easily do if his aspiration for "peace" is sincere and genuine. But how?

First, then, he ought, in filling the Federal offices at Washington and the consular and diplomatic appointments abroad, to make an equitable distribution of them among all sections of the country, as was done by our first Presidents previous to the civil war. Participation in the rebellion should be no bar, provided that he is satisfied of the present loyalty of the appointee. Fidelity to the party that elected him and to his implied pledges, would prevent his appointing any who do not abandon all further opposition to "reconstruction," but he should require no other political test, and distribute his patronage with perfect geographical fairness.

For the purpose of accomplishing this, General Grant should cause it to be understood that he does not desire a repeal of the law which requires the new Congress to assemble on the 4th of March, as he wishes to be spared the necessity of calling an extra session. The next day after he is inducted into office, he ought to send in a message recommending a removal of all the political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth constitutional amendment. He would naturally state in such a message, if he should think fit, that it appears, on the face of that amendment, that the disabilities were intended to be temporary, as evidenced by the authority conferred on Congress to remove them at any time by a two thirds vote. That only fair in this purpose, he would naturally argue, was to prevent public offices being filled by persons who would obstruct the settlement of the reconstruction questions on the basis required by Congress; and as a President is now elected who will appoint to office no person who does not accept such in the reconstruction measures, these disabilities can no longer serve any useful purpose, and the public interests require their removal. He could remind Congress that there is, in all the Southern States, a multitude of local Federal offices which ought to be filled by men of approved integrity and intelligence, and that the range of fit selection would be greatly widened, and the public service rendered more honest and efficient, by permitting a President who means to carry out the reconstruction policy in good faith, to use his own judgment in making appointments, subject to the constitutional confirmation by the Senate; the assured loyalty of all parts of the appointing power, and removing power, being a sufficient guarantee against improper selections or the holding of office by relapsed rebels.

There would be ample time for Congress to act on this subject before the new President would be under any necessity of appointing even his Cabinet. By the Tenure-of-Office act, all the members of the present Cabinet will remain in office for one month after General Grant's inauguration, and when the disabilities were removed, the President could make such an equitable adjustment of geographical claims, as would announce to the South, and to the world, that "peace" had come at last; that it was back come in earnest; and that the language of General Grant's letter of acceptance was not an empty flourish. The repeal of the "iron clad" test oath would be a necessary accompaniment of the removal of the disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment; and to round off and complete the work of pacification, the new President should publish a universal amnesty, and cover even Jefferson Davis with the mantle of executive mercy.

After such a beginning, the country would be convinced that the era of strife had finally closed, and that bygones were at last to be regarded in good faith as bygones. The long recess of Congress, which would immediately follow, would enable the country to settle into repose for the first time after the convulsions and agitations of the last eight years. The opening of the Pacific Railroad in the course of the summer would bring together a great festive party of leading Northerners and leading Southerners, and the gayeties of such an occasion, with the peace giving President himself of the party, and abundance of congratulatory speech-making along the way, according to our American custom, would mark the era of good feeling in a very fitting and distinguished manner. The completion of that great national work should turn the attention of the whole country, in the absence of political excitements, towards the material interests of our magnificent future; and by the time Congress would again meet, the people would be in a temper of mind favorable to the solution of the great financial problems which force themselves more and more upon public attention. General Grant might, in the meanwhile, avail himself of the advice of the soundest and best instructed financial heads in the country, (who would gladly give him their assistance,) and be prepared to recommend in his annual message a fiscal policy as judicious as his amnesty policy was wise and patriotic. Congress will evidently do nothing to reform the currency at the present session; and the postponement is of little importance considering that a full revival of the cotton crop is one of the main pre-requisites to specie payments. Let the planters be encouraged to put in their seed in the Spring with new courage and hope; let it grow during a summer of real peace; and after the harvest, let the new President, aided by the wisdom of sagacious advisers, lay before Congress recommendations which shall make him the inaugurator of prosperity as he had previously been the author of peace.

We have sketched the things at which General Grant may reasonably aspire in the first year of his administration—a policy which would make it the dawn of a bright era. We have but faint hopes, however, that we shall witness anything but great opportunities slighted by a President who does not understand his epoch and is unequal to his responsibilities.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Hon. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. StJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.
Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid as cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

Non-Forfeiture Rules.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outing.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brother's.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

THE SENTINEL.

THE BUREAU.

We publish below a letter from Mr. John A. Harrison, of Nash, to his Attorney, in this City. We give also the writ which was served upon him by the Bureau.

When was such a curse inflicted upon any Christian (not to say free) people!—How long are we to submit to it? When will Holden and Congressional revenge be satiated? And yet Judge Tourgee charged the Grand Jury of Alamance not to present Congress, or the United States, or the Judges!

We have not a word to say about Mr Charles B Whittemore, who issued this Congressional writ: He is only the agent of Congress, and is executing the "national will," as expressed by the reconstruction acts.

We wish our friends to send us all the military and Bureau orders, such as this, that they can lay hands on, or copies of them. We wish them for publication.

Our esteemed neighbour and friend, Dr W. G. Hill, has a military order allowing him to hunt, within seven miles of the City of Raleigh.

The Dr. once offered us the original, but we told him to give us a copy and keep the original, that his grandchildren might see such a trophy of the "great R public."

We wish Mr. Woods, of Orange, to send us his order from the Bureau to give up his son to Mrs. Brown. We wish Mr. Farr ll to send us his order from the Bureau, to give up his cattle, before he had been heard in the matter.

The publication of such orders will show to Congress and the world the despotism under which we have lived for more than three years:

THE WRIT.

BUREAU OF R., F. AND A. LANDS,
Office Agent Sub-District of Raleigh,
Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 10, 1868.

To any Magistrate for Nash County:

Mr. Adam Harrison has unlawfully taken this old man's entire crop; in other words, he stole it. Ephraim Upchurch is a free man and should be protected in his rights according to law. Mr. Harrison should be made to return every bushel of his corn or be arrested for stealing. He had no right to take the corn, even if he had done it by an officer, for the law allows this man $500 worth of personal property, and he may claim his crop under this law and the Magistrate or other officer who touches it lays himself liable to the penalty in such cases. I would advise the arrest of the man (Harrison) for theft if he refuses to return the corn.

CHAS B WHITTEMORE,
Agent Bureau R. F. & A. L.

MR. HARRISON'S LETTER.

CASTALIA, N. C Dec. 18th, 1868.

Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find a written notice from the negro Bureau. I was summoned yesterday to appear before his majesty, Charles Sears. He nor I knew for what. He showed me this paper and said he could not do any thing and I came back home. The man, Ephraim Upchurch, I have not seen in six months. He lived on my plantation in 1867, he and J T. Marshall working it on shares. I found the land and teams and fed the teams and they had half. Marshall is a white man; Ephraim is colored. After the crop was housed, Ephraim and the white man divided it and reported to me and Ephraim fell in my debt $86, and gave me his note for the same and my clerk witnessed the note.—This year Ephraim lived with Madison Sikes and he stole so much from Sikes that he left before the year was out. I understood that he was stealing my fodder last year and trading it off and I got clear of him as soon as I could. Also I let Sikes take my note and told him that of all he could save out of it he might have ½; and he saved about $25 and Ephraim got mad with us both and went to Raleigh and reported me to the negro Bureau.

Every word in the agent's statement is false, and if he is worth any thing, he ought to be made to suffer for it. Several knowing men have advised me to bring suit against him for $10,000 or $20,000 damages, &c.

I never expected to live to see such times as we now have in the good old county of Nash. Great God! what are we drifting to?

Yours Respectfully,
JOHN A. HARRISON.

BUREAU OF STATISTICS.

By the census of 1867, under the direction of Mr. Alexander Delmar, the Director of the bureau of statistics, the population of the country was ascertained to be 36,743,198. Of this number the politically powerful States of New England had 3,511,093; the Middle States, 9,425,116; the Southern States, 10,649,460; the Western States, 12,667,574, and the Territories, 489,951.—The number of negroes, or colored, included in the total population, was 4,633,371, divided as follows: New England States, 30,701; Middle States, 352,469; Southern States, 3 884 532; Western States, 211,493; Territories, 54 176. The total increase in 1867, from 1860, is 5,298,118; of which 5,134,252 are whites, and 163,866, are negroes or colored. The percentage of whites is 19, that of negro or colored, 3 2-3, and the total percentage is 17. The annual percentage of whites is 2 5 7; that of negroes, or colored, 1-2; and the total is 2 3 4.

The New York World, to which we are indebted for the foregoing figures, regrets that Mr. Delmar should have incurred the hostility of the present dominant party in Congress, and, likewise, that such a bureau was not established at an earlier day. It also thinks that the census of 1870 should be complete and accurate, as it will show the waste made by the war and the wonderful recuperative powers of the American people. It expresses the opinion that Congress should make the necessary provisions as early as practicable in the next year; and, indeed, that it is not too soon to commence preparations for the great work.

"SPOKES IN THE WHEEL."

In our last number we demonstrated how it was that the Senator from Granville became a "spoke in the wheel," and how we did not become "a spoke." Now we can show how the Hub lost a spoke:

Wilson Brown, of Orange, had inducements held out to him that he, or his sons should have places on the North Carolina Railroad. Brown was a good Confederate soldier, but became a temporary spoke in the wheel, and voted the ticket at the last election. He has no place on the N. C road, and the last accounts we had of him were that he had withdrawn from the hub.

We have heard of a number of lawyers who did not vote at the late election, and of others, who voted for Gen. Grant.

We fear that all such will soon be "spokes in the wheel."

If Judge Battle had conferred and consulted with Gov. Holden, before the nominations were made under the new Constitution, as did Judges Dick, Settle, Reade and other "Judges," he, too, might have been sought to have been made a "spoke in the wheel." But he was above this. We are ever ready to do honor to such a Judge and such a man. The "spokes in the wheel" will soon learn that such a Judge is not to be set aside for an ex-rebel Senator, like Judge Reade, or an ex-rebel Captain, like Judge Settle.

We had the Executive and Judicial loyalty of the State proven to us in this way by an old friend, learned in grammar, as well as the law: Governor Holden and all his loyal Judges took oaths to support the Constitution of the United States. They also took oaths to support the Constitution of the Confederacy. Our learned friend repeated the old rule of Murray, "two negatives in English destroy each other, or are equivalent to an affirmative." And he then recited the new political rule, that two "perjuries in politics" destroy each other or are equivalent to loyalty!!

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.—Senators Sherman, Trumbull, Morton, Grimes, Howard, Henderson, and Yates are authoritatively announced as favoring no action towards the submission of an amendment to the States proposing negro suffrage. If any action is determined on by a caucus, it will be the aim of the Senators, without presuming to vote against it, to stave off its adoption in time to hand it over to the legislatures of 1869-70, in the certain hope that enough of them, with such a scheme in view, will be so fixed as to reject the proposed measures. They are frank to admit that their States are lost the day such a bill is offered. —Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

What more striking commentary upon the hypocrisy of Radical professions could be afforded than this? If negro suffrage is right, why should it not be applied to all the States? There can be no circumscribing the operation of a right. And why is not the negro, Menard, admitted to a seat in Congress?

THE DEAR OLD FLAG.—On the 28th of Nov., 1868, the uncompromising Union editor of this periodical had a conversation with Sergeant Bates, who carried the dear old flag from Vicksburg to Washington. He mentioned that he was treated every where with respect until he got to the Capital of the Nation, and there he met his first rebuff. In the Western Reserve of Ohio, the loyalest portion of the loyal North, he was threatened with a stout rope and short shift. In many places, the attempt was made to bribe him. It was considered all important to keep up the hate by atrocious falsehoods in regard to the temper of the South. The march of the Sergeant was a practical demonstration of the wickedness of these slanders. Hence it was important to buy him off, or bribe him to silence. But he was too brave, honest and true to be in the market.

The Sergeant told an anecdote of an eminent personage in North Carolina, who was distinguished for thirty years by his rabid pro-slavery sentiments, who was celebrated for two months by his "unalterable opposition to negro suffrage," and who is immortalized by his conscientious advocacy for two whole years, of negro equality in all its fragrancy. "I was approached," said the Sergeant, "at Greensboro', N. C., by Col. Keyo, of——Wisconsin regiment, who told me that he was authorized by Gov Holden to offer me ten thousand dollars in hand, if I would furl my flag and go quietly home. I replied to Col. Keyo that I was not for sale."—Land We Love.

The World has instituted an investigation into the frauds alleged to be practiced by retailers of groceries and provisions in the city of New York. After detailing a special reporter, who visited many places of business and made extensive purchases of articles, which were afterwards reweighed and submitted to a chemical analysis, it expresses an opinion that "the loss to consumers by false weights &c., is full fifteen per cent., and the aggregate of such losses in this city is actually astounding when we reckon the population and their purchases. The one million people on this island, counting all classes, consume an average value of food amounting to one dollar daily for each person, rich and poor. This is an aggregate of $7,000,000 a week, and $364,000,000 a year, so that with fifteen per cent. of cheating the people are actually swindled out of $54,000,000 every year in their purchases of food." If this estimate be correctly based, it is easy to discern one great cause of the destitution among the poorer classes.

JEFFERSON DAVIS AND OTHERS.—A petition is in circulation for the pardon of Jeff. Davis and all others under presentment or indictment for having been engaged in the rebellion. Thus far, we believe, it has only been signed by Democratic members of Congress; but there are a great many others who would be very glad to see an end put to this dismal farce of trying to impose on the public by pretending to wish to try Davis or anybody else in this matter. It is time the curtain had fallen.—N. Y. Times, Rep.

Our Methodist brethren have issued an address to Gen. Grant, congratulating him on his elevation to the Presidency, and expressing their determination to pray for him. It is, so far, in harmony with the declaration made in the Young Men's Christian association of this city, that Grant needed praying for more than any other man on the continent.—Chicago Times.

The expected bill to reconstruct the State of Georgia has been introduced in the Senate, by Mr. Edmunds. It commences by repealing the reconstruction act as to Georgia, and ends by providing a provisional government! It is difficult to imagine anything that would more forcibly exhibit the farcical character of the reconstruction infamy.—Chicago Times.

"GETTING HOME."

Under this caption, the distinguished and gallant Editor of the Land We Love makes some capital hits. He says that we were promised great things when we reached the paternal mansion, and we have got there. A swarm of carpet-baggers, as troublesome and as noxious as the flies in Egypt, have spread all over the land.—They and the old negro traders and nullifiers have taken possession of the State governments and levy taxes upon everything in the shape of property, so that the dividends from thievery may be comforting to the loyal soul. Two more years of such "life at home" and the church mouse will be fat in comparison with the condition of the honest men in the reconstructed States. The loyal Fetich, the carpet baggers, the tories, the renegades, the old nullifiers now in the Fetich fold—all the thieves in the land—will be sleek and fat. All the men of honorable principle will be exhausted through the depletion of the loyal rogues.

The Editor adds:

"Mississippi did not "get home," and Mississippi is to day in an infinitely better condition than the States which did get home. The Yankee adventurer and the Southern thief kept away from Mississippi, because no offices of plunder and profit could be got by duping the poor negroes.—The consequence has been that the negroes have gone quietly to work and made a fair crop. Many of them are now able to buy a little homestead and the long coveted mule. When Mississippi defeated the Constitution, her condition was worse than that of any other Southern State. The first year after the surrender she had exhausted all her means. The second year she had exhausted her credit. The third year found her almost despairing and ready to give over all efforts to restore her fallen fortunes. The defeat of the Constitution inspired new hope and infused new energy. The Yankee knave took his carpet-bag to a more congenial region. The Southern rogue kept quiet, biding his time, waiting till Grant's election should give loyal thieves a good opening. Left to themselves, the negroes became quiet, orderly and in some degree industrious. Alabama would be just as prosperous, but for the mean trick, which forced her "home," spite of herself.

Virginia, Mississippi and Texas have been singularly blessed. The swarm of hungry flies found no resting place in their borders. The other States, being "at home," must expect the house-fly and to be stung, bit and bled profusely thereby.—But the products of the South being of such vast importance to the loyal North, it would be well to devise some scheme by which the crop could be made a certainty. This is easily done. Keep the carpet-bagger out and the Southern Fetich will be quiet. Agitation will stop at once. Work will go briskly on, and peace will come with healing on its wings. But as Congress, by its Reconstruction measures, brought out and developed the carpet bagger and Fetich, it would be but fair and honorable to pay each of them for a year double what he could make by his own calling at home. Pension them all off in that way for a year and let them go in peace. A very simple calculation would show that the government would be immensely the gainer by it. Scott, the Fetich Governor of South Carolina, could probably earn 25 cents a day at his own profession. Allow him 50 cents per day for a year, i. e., $185,50. Warmoth could possibly make 20 cents. Let him have 40 cents per day or $146 in one lump, as salary for the year.—Reed, the Fetich chief of Florida, should be allowed the same, with release from impeachment, so that he may go back to loyal Wisconsin as rapidly as possible. The rabble of Leavenworth, Kansas, are mourning over the absence of Clayton, Fetich Chief of Arkansas. Let him have $109,50 and go back to those weeping ones Prosser, Fetich leader in Tennessee, should be given 20 cents a day. Abbott, of North Carolina, 10 cents, Tourgee, of North Carolina, 5 cents, and Deweese 3 cents.

Now there is no doubt that these men should all be paid their quit fee in an honorable manner, regardless of expense. But we think that the expense would not be so great as might be imagined. The carpet bag army does not exceed 70,000. The loyal Fetich of Southern birth may be put down at 30 000. Here, then, are 100 000 hungry souls to be fed, and we agree to give them for one year double what they could earn, upon the sole condition that they interfere no more with the labor system of the South. Now suppose that the average earning of these men is 15 cents at their lawful avocations, the government would then have to pay each individual $109 50 per annum, or in all $10 950,000. A heavy outlay, it must be admitted, but the government would make an excellent bargain. The increased production of tobacco and sugar alone would cover the expense, and there would be at least 2,000,000 more bales of cotton raised if the carpet-baggers and thieves were removed. This would increase the exports of this country $190,000,000, estimating the bale of cotton to be worth $95.

If General Grant is the sagacious statesman that Democratic papers have lately discovered him to be, he will see the importance of pensioning off the carpet-baggers and the loyal Fetich. It may be that he would consider 30 cents a day as an exorbitant allowance. In that case, we would accept his amendment without a murmur."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND SPECIE PAYMENTS.—A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:

"A paragraph telegraphed hence to a Northern paper contains what purports to be the substance of a conversation between a member of Congress and the President, in which the latter is made to say that he is not in favor of an early resumption of specie payments.

"The statement is erroneous. Mr. Johnson is understood to be in favor of immediate resumption, though he has not authorized any one to announce the plan or modus operandi by which he would accomplish the end sought to be attained."

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.—It appears these claims are as far from settlement as ever.—After Lord Stanley had agreed to a mixed commission, which Lord Russell and Lord Clarendon heretofore refused, Mr. Seward insisted on the commission meeting in Washington. That was granted. Then Mr. Seward peremptorily refused to let English claimants come before the commission. Lord Stanley could not quite stand this; so he left the matter unsettled to his successor. We shall see what the Radicals will make by having their Radical friends in power on the other side of the water.

THE SUPREME COURT.—The proposition submitted to-day to allow the Judges of the Supreme Court to retire on full pay after reaching the age of seventy years is regarded as another lever with which to oust the conservative element of the court and substitute Judges with progressive ideas. It is rumored that the Judiciary Committee of the Senate will smother this and all other propositions.—Washington Letter to Baltimore Gazette.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, so far as condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed buoyant with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago his proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has procured, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he deems should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are all they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK, 53 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse, and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification; that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER, Chemist.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, May 1.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR:—The want of pure Wines and Liquors for medical purposes has been long felt by the profession and thousands of lives have been sacrificed by the use of adulterated articles. Delirium tremens, and other diseases of the brain and nerves, so rife in this country, are very rare in Europe, owing, in a great degree, to the difference in the purity of the spirits sold.

We have tested the several articles imported and sold by you, including your Gin, which you sell under the name of Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, which we consider justly entitled to the high reputation it has acquired in this country; and from your long experience as a foreign importer, your Bottled Wines and Liquors should meet with the same demand.

We would recommend you to appoint some of the respectable apothecaries in different parts of the city as agents for the sale of your Brandies and Wines, where the profession can obtain the same when needed for medicinal purposes.

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,
We remain, your obedient servants,

The next session of J. H. Horner's Classical and Mathematical School, in Oxford, will begin on the first Monday in January. Mr. Horner, it is well known, stands at the head of his profession in the State.

EASTERN WARD.—At a meeting of citizens of the Eastern Ward, on Tuesday night, the following gentlemen were recommended as candidates for Commissioners in the Ward, viz: Messrs. D. L. Royster, Jas. A. Moore and J. J. Overby. These gentlemen have all had considerable experience in municipal affairs, having frequently served on the Board, and will make excellent Commissioners, if elected.

TO-DAY is the last day for municipal REGISTRATION. Let no citizen fail to register. One vote in any Ward may save us from the curse of an incompetent and disreputable City government.

CORRECTION.—We are advised that the report, to which we gave currency, on yesterday, of the assembling of bodies of armed negroes in the streets of Charlotte, on Sunday night, is incorrect. Rumors were busy to the effect that such was the case, on the night in question, and those reaching the various Churches, exercises were suspended and the congregations dismissed. We are happy to hear that there has been no breach of the peace in our sister City since the late tragical occurrence there.

OUR CARRIER.—We hope that the City Patrons of the Sentinel will remember the Carrier, when he presents them, to-morrow, with his annual Xmas offering. Faithfully, through all sorts of weather, he has served them for the year past, and he deserves, richly, a substantial recognition of his fidelity and industry.

WE PRESUME that no one feels like reading anything more than the current news of the day, at this festive season. We therefore make up, to-day, in interesting details and selections, for the absence of Editorial matter.

THE GRAVES' SCHOOL.—The school of Mr. R. H. Graves, located at Graham, on the North Carolina railroad, sixty miles west of Raleigh, commences its spring session on the 18th. of January. The location of this school is pleasant, and its reputation is too well known to need comment.

THE LATE MAJOR HUSTED.—At a meeting of the members of the Bar of the Circuit Court of the United States for the district of North Carolina, on the 21st instant, in Raleigh, Hon. B. F. Moore was called to the Chair, and Kemp P. Battle, Esq., appointed Secretary.

Hon. Wm. H. Battle moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting in regard to the death of H. W. Husted, Esq., a member of this bar, which motion was adopted.

The chair appointed the Hon. Wm. H. Battle, Hon. Thomas Bragg and E. G. Haywood, Esq.

The committee, through their chairman, reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The members of the Bar in attendance upon the present term of the Federal Court have heard with deep regret of the sudden death in the city yesterday of Hiram W. Husted, Esq. The deceased was a native of Connecticut, but came South in early manhood, and having married a daughter of the late Hon. Jesse Slocum, member of Congress from the Newbern District, spent the remainder of his life in this State. He adopted the law as his profession, but, owing to his love of literary pursuits, he did not devote himself to his professional business with that entire and intense application which is necessary to the attainment of its highest rewards. Nevertheless he filled with honor to himself and usefulness to the public at different periods of his life several important offices, and among others that of the United States Attorney for the District of North Carolina. In his official as in his professional conduct, he always exhibited the character of a high-minded, honorable and intelligent gentleman. In the social intercourse of life he was genial, kindly and charitable, warm in his friendship, and firm in his principles.—To testify their regard for so worthy a brother, the members of the bar have adopted the following resolutions:

1. That they will wear the usual badge of mourning during the present term of the Court.

2. That a copy of the preamble and resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased by the chairman of this meeting.

3. That the District Attorney be desired to present the proceedings of this meeting to the presiding Judge, with a request that they be entered on the records of the Court.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

KEMP P. BATTLE, Sec'y.

A GOOD JOKE.—We know that our friend Rogers will pardon us (as it is Christmas) for re-producing the following "heavy" joke at his expense, which we find in the Galaxy, a literary periodical published in the City of New York. As the Colonel was not an aspirant for the negro vote, the cream of the joke lies in the fact that the t'other man—he who has been indicted by the Grand Jury of the Federal Court for an abuse of the franking privilege,—did all the "kissing" on that side, if any was done. As to Col. Rogers' popularity, that is so. He is universally and deservedly popular, and he reduced the Radical majority in the late election nearly 3,000 votes.

But to the joke:

"It makes one think of "good old times" in electioneering, to read of the way the Raleigh district in North Carolina was canvassed at the late election; and one's sympathies are quite divided between the successful and the defeated candidate. The latter is described by a political opponent as "the ablest leader in his party," one "whose character was above reproach, and whose efforts were constant and indefatigable." That the latter eulogium, at least, is deserved, may be gathered from what follows in the account, namely, that "Colonel Rogers visited almost every house in the district, speaking kind words to the r mothers, and kissing, without regard to color, the children." Now, if our readers will just cast up the number of houses in their own Congressional districts (for the districts are substantially equal in population) and then estimate what it was to "visit almost every house" and to "kiss all the children, without regard to color," they may calculate on the amount of osculation which the gallant Colonel performed. In history, we have all heard of those famous electioneering tours made by English ladies of quality, when they stewed gruel for all the sick, and to the men gave that most irresistible of bribes, a kiss for a vote. Nevertheless, we think the Colonel's devotion was, upon the whole, more heroic. Pickwick furnishes us with a precedent or parallel perhaps somewhat more apt to the present than any we now think of. We mean that famous Eatanswill election where Mr. Slumkey "stood," and where, when the twenty "washed men" had been shaken by the hand, the six children in arms were brought on to the scene. "'He has patted the babies on the head,' said Mr. Perker, trembling with anxiety. A roar of applause rent the air. 'He has kissed one of 'em,' exclaimed the delighted little man. A second roar. 'He has kissed another,' gasped the excited manager. A third roar. 'He's kissing 'em all,' screamed the enthusiastic little gentlemen." In all this, however, we see nothing more "indefatigable" than in Colonel Rogers' case. It is only lamentable that so much kissing was done to no purpose. But, like Cato, the Colonel may reflect that

'Tis not in mortals to command success,
But we'll do more, Sempronius; we'll deserve it

PRINTER IN LUCK.—Mr. Wm. McMahon, a poor lithographic printer at the establishment of Messrs. German & Bro., on Third Street, has, by the decease of a relative in Manchester, England, fallen heir to £8,000, or $40,000 in gold. This glad news reached Mr. McMahon a few days ago. Some two or three weeks ago his father arrived in Philadelphia from Manchester, and not succeeding in hearing of the whereabouts of his son, advertised for him in the Philadelphia papers, and gave notice of the handsome bequest. A friend of Mr. McMahon's, chancing to see the advertisement, clipped it, enclosed it in a letter of explanation, and transmitted it to the lucky heir. On receiving it Mr. McMahon was delirious with joy, and at once quit work. After receiving the felicitations of his fellow-workmen, he hastened home and imparted the glorious news to his wife. Is it possible to describe the exuberant joy felt and displayed by these humble people on their transition from poverty to wealth and independence? Mr. McMahon left by the first train for Philadelphia to meet his father and arrange for his wife's coming and the speedy departure of the whole party for Manchester. We heartily wish them the fullest enjoyment of their happily acquired riches.

Mr. McMahon was wholly dependent upon his labor as a printer to support himself and wife and child. He has been in this country several years, the past two of which he has spent in this city and Chicago.—Louisville Courier.

SINGULAR.—Secretary McCulloch received a dispatch on Saturday from an agent of the Government at Mobile, reporting that he had discovered $1,000,000 of gold, and asking what he should do in the premises.—The Secretary directed him to procure an escort and take possession of the property. Nothing further has been received by the Secretary respecting the treasure. Neither the Secretary nor Mr. Spinner have any conception of the meaning of the dispatch.—National Intelligencer, 22d.

As the Christmas advances we hear of an increased disposition on the part of a certain class through this section to appropriate that which don't belong to them. A large amount of cotton was stolen from a farmer's gin house near this place one night last week. A large farmer in another part of the county assures us that he has lost out of his cotton fields this fall at least $2,000 worth of this staple. Again we cry, where's the remedy?—Weldon News.

STILL ANOTHER RING.—There is a new ring in this city, with a branch office in Washington, which may be styled the steamship ring, or the steamship subsidy ring, as the "subsidy" appears to be all that the operators are anxious about. It is made up of Bohemians, broken down steamship men, practical lobbyists, shyster lawyers and members of Congress, who are now in a way of swindling the government out of three millions of dollars.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 21.

It is reported that Gen. Grant will offer the Secretaryship of War to Gen. McClellan. If he should do so, what an immense amount of "Pain Paint" would be required to soothe the anguish of the heroic radicals who led the home guards during "the late 'unpleasantness'!"

Farragut has just been offered a dinner by the same men who lately dined and wined Gen. Grant. The admiral declined on the ground that he had already received more honor than he is entitled to. We summarize this occurrence as being the most remarkable, if not the only, case of the kind in history.

This county is particularly fortunate in her representatives. Messrs. Waitt and Grier in the House, and Judge Osborne in the Senate, are unsurpassed in ability and devotion to duty by any delegation this county ever had.—Charlotte Times.

From the Louisville Democrat, December 14.

DEATH OF A NOTED KENTUCKY GUERILLA.

At about half past 10 o'clock yesterday morning one of the most terrible bushwhackers that figured on either side during the war breathed his last at our city hospital. The noted Captain Ed. Terrell is no more. These words will cause a feeling of relief to hundreds of good men in Shelby and other counties in this State. He was without doubt one of the most heartless and wicked men that has figured in this age. It is believed by those who know whereof they speak that Ed. Terrell murdered no less than twenty men during his life. He was conspicuous in both the Confederate and Federal armies.

At the breaking out of the war he enlisted in the Dixie Guards, a company commanded by Jack Thompson, of Owensboro', which was mustered into the First Kentucky (Confederate) regiment. He afterwards joined General Morgan's command, from which he deserted in 1863, and turned up as Captain of a company of independent (Federal) scouts. It will be remembered that it was Captain Ed. Terrell who murdered Hercules Walker in 1864 on his farm, a few miles from the city, on the Preston-street road. Terrell rode up to the house of Walker and inquired for him.—Walker's wife called him from his work in the field, and, upon his coming up to the door, Terrell deliberately shot him down without uttering a word. He said at the time that he had a commission to kill ten men, and Walker was the first of the number. After committing this bloody deed the desperado rode off in search of new victims.

He also murdered Enois Wood, an industrious and worthy blacksmith, at Taylorsville, in Spencer County. Terrell had got a number of horses shod, and upon being asked by Wood who was to pay for the work he became enraged and shot the poor man down in cold blood.

In 1864 he murdered Mr Johnson, a worthy citizen of Indiana, who came to Kentucky with a drove of cattle, which he had sold and for which he had received the money. Terry decoyed the unsuspecting drover out a few miles from Shelbyville, when he knocked him on the head, stripped the body of what money was upon it, and then threw it in Clear Creek, where it was discovered and the crime traced to Terrell. He was indicted and lay in jail for a long time, until he broke out, and shortly afterwards visited Shelbyville with his gang.—He was attacked by a posse of citizens and fairly riddled with bullets, yet his time had not come for death. He lived, but in a very crippled condition. He was afterward captured, but by some machination got released on his own bond.

On one occasion, we are told, he was courting a beautiful girl. Her brother had come into the parlor and was introduced to Terrell. The young man had on a fine pair of new boots. Terrell set his affections upon them, and on that same night shot and killed the young man for the sole purpose of getting his boots. Terrell afterwards boasted of this exploit. His trail was marked with the blood of his innocent victims throughout the war, and long after its close.

While on the Confederate side he was a boon companion of Sue Munday and Champ Ferguson. He was outlawed by all Confederate forces, and bushwhacked on his own hook for plunder, until he got into the Federal camp. He then obtained a roving commission, and commenced his bloody career anew, killing the friends with whom he had camped and fought in a common cause.

About three months ago, Terrell was shot and wounded in five or six places by a brother-in-law whom he had grossly wronged. This, we believe, finished his career, so far as spilling blood was concerned. Some two months ago he was brought to the Louisville city hospital, where he lingered in great agony until death came to his relief. He was a terror to the people of Shelby county and other localities in Kentucky. Thus has passed away one of the last of the monstrous desperadoes to whom the war gave birth.

A BOY KILLS HIS FATHER.—McArthur Ohio, December 12.—At noon to day word was brought here of the killing, last night, near Berlin cross-roads, in Jackson county, of a father by his son, a boy about fifteen years of age, not large or stout for that age. The father's name was Harrison Scott.—From the informant your correspondent learned that the father was in the habit of getting intoxicated and, on going home, of turning his wife and children out of doors. On Friday night he went home drunk, from Hamden, and attempted to repeat his former treatment. The family lived in the country, and the night was extremely wintry and cold. The son, his eldest boy, remonstrated against the driving away of his mother and the children and himself.—When his father attempted violence upon him, the boy seized a stick of wood to resist, and in his dread and terror of his father, and his efforts at resistance, seemed to acquire superhuman strength. He struck his father over the head with it several times, breaking his skull at each of the four or five successive blows, from which he died at once. The boy had not been arrested, though at home, agreeing to stay till after the funeral and then surrender himself into the hands of the law.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

At the banquet on Wednesday night Mr. John A. Logan remarked that, "As is well known, I never write my speeches." This is true; but he omitted to state the equally well known fact, that his speeches are always written for him by somebody else.—Chicago Times.

A man, condemned to be hanged in Canada, when brought on the scaffold, delivered a long speech to a great crowd. The gist of it was embraced in the concluding sentence: "Young men! beware of whisky, of young women and of the United States."

"A New Hampshire paper declares that there is 'the lousiest set of fellows in Congress that the country ever saw.' And yet, during the last session, the Senate alone ran the country to the expense of $736 for hair brushes. Hair brushes, however, are not fine-tooth combs."—Louisville Journal.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,948.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

On Christmas-eve, when the moon shone bright,
Nelly and Kate saw a wonderful sight
Where the fire had faded away;
A funny old man, with a pipe so fiery,
A flowing white beard and a face so sunny
That it gave the pale moonlight a golden glow,
And seemed to warm the glittering snow.
The funny old man was laden with toys,
And he tossed them down without any noise,
Till in beautiful heaps they lay.

Not a whit frightened were Nelly and Kate,
For they thought it a dream (it was very late,)
And they slept again, moreover.
The first crimson ray, when it came to tell
That Christmas had risen, and all was well,
Saw Nelly and Kitty among the rest,
Happy, and sure-ly, and merry and blest,
Taking their treasures from stockings and shoe,
And thanking the giver a hundred times o'er—
But the ashes were gray and bare.

WASTE OF VALOR!—Two young gentlemen, one of Philadelphia, and the other of Providence, being smitten with the same belle, worth half a million, took it into their heads that each was a barrier to the other. The first cause of war still exerting its potency, they determined to kill each other out of the way; and for that purpose, by agreement, met with six shooters. The seconds, having placed them and given the word—they fired so rapidly and so much at random, that the seconds were in much greater danger than they were. Having discharged their six barrels, and the seconds being unwilling to reload and take the risks again, the combatants fell into each other's arms, and then agreed to go straight together to see their fair. The young lady received them with a charming smile, congratulating them on the happy issue of their duel, which, she added with a tone of soft reproach, was wholly the more inconprehensible, as she had never had the least thought of taking either for a husband. At the same time she introduced another young gentleman, all smiles, to whom she said she was engaged—and she begged the two sons of Mars to attend the nuptials on Xmas Day.

DO MEN WEAR CORSETS?—The question, "Do Men Wear Corsets?" is answered by a New York corset-maker, who says they do, and he "knows it because he makes them." He adds: "The finest gentlemen in town employ this means of giving symmetry to their figures. They are not used so much by young men as by those somewhat advanced in life. Wealthy gentlemen of middle age like to be thought handsome, and to have preserved the symmetry and grace of youth. I should say that there are at least three thousand gentlemen in New York who wear corsets habitually, and lace them pretty tight, too."

[Well, what if they do? Some women wear breeches.]
